Mr Shamanna wants to leave from Monday the 1st Febry 04. This means the total period of leave exceeds 5 days. Consequently this will have to be treated as privilege leave (Vide art 175 of the M.S. One months privilege leave to Mr B. Shamanna, Asst Comm^r. Excise Dept, Shimoga Dt. & acting arrangement.

* Note.

Mr Shamanna applied for 5 days' casual leave from Monday the 1st February 1904. This was granted in anticipation of sanction by the Excise Comm^r, who forwarded the copy of the telegram with his letter no. 6235/248, dd 2/4/2/04 for to this Office for formal sanction. A doubt having arisen as to whether the total period of the leave exceeded 5 days or not, the exact nature of the leave to be sanctioned could not be ascertained and the Excise Commr was asked on 10/2/04 to report Mr Shamanna's date and hour of departure and of return to duty. The report has not yet been furnished. In the meantime the Excise Commr in the letter under reference has recommended the grant of one month's privilege leave from 18th March 04. To sanction this leave ~~application~~ it is not necessary to decide whether the leave for 5 days is casual or privilege. Even if that is to be calculated as privilege leave, the leave applied for may be granted, as the period of leave applied for on the 29th inst. does not exceed 15 days. (Art 188 of the Service Regns).

The Comptroller's certificate shows that Mr Shamanna was entitled to 2 months' and 8 days' privilege leave on the 23rd Feb 04. Hence the leave may be granted.

In case the leave is granted, the Excise Commr proposes to place Mr Rozario, Excise Inspector, Govt Central Distillery, in charge of the Shimoga Dn, as it cannot be left without any officer. He also requests that, if this arrangement

5 approved, one of the newly appointed probationers may be placed in charge of the Central Distillery.

Compliance with the State Govt's recommendation would have been simple & Mr Rogers's short-term grievances would be allowed. Shamanna is an important district - & Under the circumstances can be deputed to do this work. There would have no objn - Shamanna may however be relieved

Mr Shamanna seems to have already been relieved - & hence does not intend availing himself of more than 10 days of the leave if as he believes the Excise Comr does through his visit on a tour of inspection. Even for a month a temporary arrangement involving the transfer of an official from Bangalore on promotion does not seem to me desirable - As orders on the 5 the leave solicited for & directing his relief may be

The Excise Commissioner when forwarding for sanction the leave application of Mr. B. Shamanna, Asst Commr with his letter no $\frac{6770}{268}$, dt $\frac{23}{29}$.1.04 requested that if the leave was granted and if his proposal to send Mr Rozario, in charge of the Central Distillery, to Shimoga was also approved, one of the newly appointed probationers might be sent to be in charge of the Central Distillery. His arrangement was not approved ~~& accordingly was no necessity for it.~~

Now in his letter no $\frac{7326}{293}$ dated $\frac{7}{8}$.4.04, the Excise Commr solicits that one of the newly appointed probationers

8

may be sent to work in the Excise Dept, as much difficulty is felt in finding substitutes for the Excise Divisional Officers proceeding on leave etc, and the appointment of ~~men~~ Officers, who have not had proper training in the details of Excise work, seriously affects the interests of the Dept, and as the new probationer, if the Govt are pleased to send one, will be undergoing training in Excise work and will be available to be drafted to the regular charge of a Div., when there may be a necessity for it.

Submitted for orders. The request is reasonable; but not. The Secy Revenue should note 13/4/04 that all the probationers have
MG
13-4-04 been posted to other Depts & that none of them is available.
The Excise Comr's request

Can be complied with only by withdrawing one probationer from present employment

13/4/04

Please put up a printed copy of the Order appointing the new Probationers It was issued from the Financial Branch.

It can then be seen whether any of them can be spared for the Excise Deptt
